

Edinburgh University Library Handlist of Manuscripts H57

Gen. 631-689

Notebooks and Papers of Professor Robert Flint (1834-1910) Professor of Divinity at Edinburgh University 1876-1903

(Other manuscripts are at New College Library MSS FLI 1-5)

- 631-633 Notes of lectures delivered to the Moral Philosophy Class in Edinburgh University during session 1843-4, by Professor Wilson. 3 vols.
- 634-635 Notes of lectures, Junior Divinity session, 1867-68. [No lecturer named.] 2 vols.
- 636 Notes of the lectures of R. Buchanan, Professor of Logic and Rhetoric, Session 1850-51, R. Flint, Glasgow. [Flint was a student at Glasgow from 1849, but did not take the MA there.] 1 vol.
- 637 Notes "The divine purpose or plan of redemption was progressively unfolded in the history of Israel." 1 vol. with pages torn out and only 10pp of notes. n.d.
- 638 Notes. [For his own lectures?] Phases of religious development. 1 vol. 14pp. n.d.
- 639 Notes, headed "Prolusione e Introduzione alla Lezioni di Filosofia nella Università di Napoli, 23 Nov. - 23 Dec. 1861, per B. Spenta, Napoli 1862." 1 vol.
- 640 Notes. Pain & pleasure. 1 vol. n.d.
- 641 Notes. The knowability of God. Agnosticism in general. 1 vol. n.d.
- 642 Notes. On Bishop Butler. 1 vol. n.d.
- 643 Notes for "The Philosophy of a History of Religion". [Contains many loose pages.] 1 vol. n.d.
- 644 Notes. [History of Christian Apologetics.] 1 vol. n.d.
- 645 Notes. [Moral Philosophy.] 1 vol. n.d.
- 646 Notes. Virtues & vices and the influences which modify them. [Contains many loose pages.] 1 vol. n.d.
- 647 Notes from The Nineteenth Century, no.144 Feb 1889 on agnosticism. Article by Huxley and Professor Flint's own notes for lecture on Agnosticism. 1 vol.
- 648 Notes: Philosophy of religion, history, science, theology, and their relations and interrelations. 1 vol., c.1901.
- 649 Notes. Mainly lists of books in subjects groups, in various languages. After 1904. 1 vol. 6pp.

- 650 Notes on the relations of the sciences to one another, to philosophy, religion and morality. Marked on first page "Robert Flint, 1867". 1 vol. Loose pages & some newspaper cuttings.
- 651 Notebook on the Philosophy of Religion. 1 vol. n.d.
- 652 Christian ecclesiology notes. 1 vol. n.d.
- 653 Notes on the course of Greek thought to Aristotle. 1 vol. 1866-67.
- 654 Notes. Agnosticism. 1 vol. n.d.
- 655 Notes. History of philosophy of history in Germany. 1 vol. n.d.
- 656 Notes. Lists of theological books in EUL in 1870s. Theism. Evidence for belief in God. 1 vol. n.d.
- 657 Handwritten text of Plato's Euthyphron, in English. 1 vol., partly filled. n.d.
- 658 Natural philosophy notes. 1 vol. n.d.
- 659 Notebook on the nature of knowledge. [Contains many loose pages.] n.d.
- 660 Notes of studies begun June 23 1864. Empty except for plan of an Introductory course of lectures on ethics. 1p.
- 661-3 Notebooks on Kant, apologetics, philosophical theories, humanity of Christ. 3 vols. n.d.
- 664 Notes, very miscellaneous, including: heathen, Indian religion, redemption, etc. n.d.
- 665-6 Notebooks on Kant and Cartesian philosophy, epistemology. 2 vols. Includes introductory address to New College Society, 27 October 1899.
- 667-8 Notebooks on prayer, the Church, etc. 2 vols. n.d.
- 669 Notebook on prayer. 1 vol. n.d., but written in pencil on cover "Free Church Presbytery Examination, 1854".
- 670-4 Notebooks on Theism, Hegel, miscellaneous quotations, prophecy, Buddhism. 5 vols.
- 675 Notebook on the Holy Spirit, with many loose pages. n.d.
- 676 Notebook on Hebrew grammar.
- 677 Notebook. Miscellaneous, with apologetics and some guidelines for class, many loose pages.
- 678-79 Notes on Hegel, nature of sin, etc. 2 vols. n.d.
- 680 Essay, Glasgow, 1858: "The Relation of General and Professional Education". [Probably an essay submitted for a prize competition.]
- 681 Notes on the history of moral philosophy & ethics.
- 682 Essay in yellow notebook on "Natural Religion in its relation to revealed religion". 1 vol. n.d.
- 683 Small black notebook on "Natural Religion in its relation to revealed religion". 1 vol. n.d.

- 684-6 Notes on election, origin of evil, Greek vocabulary and grammar, notes on Christian dogmatics. 3 vols. n.d.
- 687 Box. A collection of essays, lectures, sermons, admonitions, speeches, etc., which look like the finished products from many of the notes listed above. There are biographical accounts of some philosophers and theologians.
- 688 Box. Flint's letters, accounts, publishing correspondence, etc. Folder 1 contains papers connected with Edinburgh University courses, with some lists of students' names and their essay marks (1899). Notes on disestablishment of the Church. Final drafts of lectures, all handwritten, many degenerating into mere notes.
- 689 Box. Contains some unidentified photographs, [one is of 2nd Lieutenant H.C. Arnold], newspaper cuttings [often about Professor Flint's own activities and views, e.g. sectarianism, disestablishment] and galley proofs of The Life of Professor Flint [by William Paterson Paterson].

1997