

Additional list of Latin MSS., not catalogued at the time of their receipt by the University.

Miscellaneous Papers. Division II.

- 655 Packet containing (1) Fragment of Gascoigne Douglas's Virgil, 3 leaves of MS., written (acc. to Dr. Haing) about 1530. - (2) A fragment of an unknown edition of the "Tale of Beorn," by the same author,
"printed apparently at Edinburgh not later than 1540 by Thomas Davidson."
656. Leaf containing parts of two MS. poems (c. 1560). The first is that beginning
"My hert, repose the st." printed at pp. 691-3 of the Hunterian Club Ed. of the Barnaby MS. but with very considerable & poetical variations.
The second poem which, i. b. st., begins "So(?) quha suld pres to suffer pyre, or for thair felonous thair distres" & is apparently not in the Barnaby MS.
657. "Confessionale" or dispensation in favour of John Hauer, Provost & Keeper of the New Hospital, Nuremberg, Diocese Bamberg, & 11 other parsons. <sup>No date</sup> Fully illustrated.
658. Warrant by King James VI. for paying £900 to George Heriot, goldsmith, for jewels & presents to the French Ambassador Cadet & his secretary. 11th January 1620-1.
659. Original Instructions by King Charles II to Lieut. General John Middleton (appr. Earl) to go to the Hague & treat with the Spanish Ambassador, also with the Jews at Amsterdam & Ypres. 24 September 1656.
660. A contemporary MS. of the popular version of the "Pockmarky Sermon" preached on the last Sunday of July 1638 in St. Giles, by Rev. James Row.
This version is entitled "A capp of Bon Accord".
661. Ms. A.5. is an English hand, containing 24 verses of "Jane Shore," as in the "Mirror for Magistrates," ed. 1563, with three words in a different hand "quoth quoth Richard Waste" [MS. not dated, but must have been written before 1591].

Additional List of Living MSS., not catalogued at the time of their receipt by the University.

Miscellaneous Papers. Division II.

- 655 Packet containing (1) Fragment of Gascoigne Douglas's Virgil, 3 leaves of ms., written (acc. to Dr. Haing) about 1530. - (2) A fragment of an unknown edition of the "Talece of Walton", by the same author, "printed apparently at Edinburgh not later than <sup>1540</sup> by Thomas Davidson".
656. Leaf containing parts of two ms. poems (c. 1560). The first is that beginning "My hert, reprise the" etc. printed at pp. 691-3 of the Hunterian Club Ed. of the Barnaby MS. but with very considerable & poetical variations. The second poem which, i. b. t., begins "So(?) quhaould p[ro]es to suffer pyre, or for thair felonious thid distres" & is apparently not in the Barnaby MS. No date.
657. "Confessionale" or dispensation in favour of John Hauer, Provost & Keeper of the New Hospital, Nuremberg, Diocese Bamberg, & 11 other parsons. Fully illuminated.
658. Warrant by King James VI. for paying £900 to George Heriot, goldsmith, for jewels & presents to the French Ambassadors <sup>No date</sup> Cadeneau & his Scutchies. 11th January 1620-1.
659. Original Instructions by King Charles II to Lieut. General John Middleton (appraised Earl) to go to The Hague & treat with the Spanish Ambassador, also with the Jews at Amsterdam & Ypres. 24 September 1656.
660. A contemporary MS. of the popular version of the "Pockmanty Sermon" preached on the last Sunday of July 1638 in St. Giles, by Mr. James Row. This version is entitled "A capp of Bon Accord".
661. Q. MS. in an English hand, containing 24 verses of "Jane Shore", as in the "Mirror for Magistrates", ed. 1563; with three words in a different hand "from quoth Richard Weston" [MS. not dated, but must have been written before 1591].

157

Additional list of Lainy MSS., not catalogued at the time of their receipt by the University

No.

Miscellaneous papers. Division II

X 655 Roll.

655* Packet containing (1) Fragment of Gawyn Douglas's Virgil. Three fragmentary leaves of MS. written (according to St. Lainy) about 1530. (2) A

MS. "Fragment of an unknown edition of the Palice of Honour" by Walter Scott or the same author "printed apparently at Edinburgh not later than 1616. the year 1540 by Thomas Davidson!" D.B. 6. 20.

See 687

655<sup>1/2</sup>

X 656 Leaf containing parts of two MS poems (c 1560). The first is that beginning "My hert, repose the" & printed at pp 691-3 of the Hum-berian Club Ed. of the Bannatyne MS. but with very considerable poetical variations. The second poem, which, in the MS, begins "Se(?) quha suld peres to suffer pyne, or for thair plesour thair distres" / is apparently not in the Bannatyne MS.

X 657. "Confessionale" or Dispensation in favour of John Hauer, Provost and Keeper of the New Hospital, Nuremberg, Diocese of Bamberg, and eleven other persons. Finely illuminated. no date

X 658. Warrant by King James the Sixth for paying £ 900 to George Heriot goldsmith & for jewels & presents to the French Ambassador Cadenet and his secretaries. 11th January 1620-1.

X 659 Original Instructions by King Charles II to Lieut. General John Middleton (afterwards Earl!) to go to the Hague & meet with the Spanish Ambassador, also with the Jews at Amsterdam & Bruges
24 September 1656

X 660. A contemporary MS of the popular version of the "Pockmanty sermon" preached on the last Sunday of July 1638 in St. Giles, by Mr.
James Row. This version is entitled "A capp of Bon Record."

X 661. A MS in an English hand, containing 24 verses of "Jane Shore" as in the "Mirrour for Magistrates" Ed. 1563. with these words in a different hand "finis quothe Richard Weste" [This was not dated, but must have been written before 1591.]

- * 662 Interesting letter, Mr Gavin Young, minister of Ruthwell to John Murray, Earl of Annandale. Tumult about Service book. 31 October 1637.
- * 663 Fragment of a letter, Mr James Melville to Andrew Kerr, bookseller Edinburgh. 2nd July 1606.
- * 664. Copy (Contemporary) of the paper directed against the "Public Resolutions" of the Rev Hugh Binning - c1651
- * 665. Another paper by Mr Binning, Endorsed in Warriston's handwriting as "Mr H Bining his reply to Mr D. Dickson" animadverting on "a paper intituled 'no separation from the armie' &c. [This MS is said to be in the handwriting of David Anderson, son of Warriston's clerk.]
- * 666. MS. entitled "Information for the Marquis of Argyll," evidently forming part of the legal defences for that nobleman on his trial. 1661.
- * 667. Letter from [Major?] John Strachan to [a nobleman perhaps the Commander of the Forces] in reference to a complaint against him for illegal quartering in Earlston [Berwickshire] 3 September 1670.
- * 668. MS. (contemporary) entitled "The Last words of Margaret Elliot, spouse of Thomas Stewart of Culness, who died 8th June 1675." with an epitaph.
- * 669. MS. fragment of ~~the~~ an "Account of the Voyage and Journals of the Scots African and Indian Fleet" from July 1698 to 1st November thereafter. 1699.

- 670 Fragment of ten leaves, apparently letters to a Mrs Donaldson 1696-1700. ~~one~~ one of them giving an account of the fire in Parliament Close.
- * 671. Copy in an 18th century hand of the Tables of Leknam in Arabic with Latin Translation.
672. M.S. (imperfect) containing entries relating to ~~test~~ workers to the Signet, apparently notes of their minutes [last date, 1683, & the handwriting is contemporary.]
- + 673 M.S. (contemporary) containing copies of letters R. Dundas & John Wightman, satires on the latter, who was a baillie in Edinburgh. 1721.
- * 674. Contemporary Ms. entitled "A Full Collection of all Poems upon Charles Prince of Wales" in [1745] apparently incomplete.
- * 675. Memorandum in the handwriting of Charles Kirkpatrick Sharpe about the "Musical Museum" & ~~etc~~ pen & ink sketch by him. no date ~~Fe 10 18~~
- * 676 Contemporary Ms [1715] Memorial to the Duke of Montrose as to the Profession of Medicine in Edinburgh, proposing the appointment of the Professor of Medicine as perpetual first Physician in Ordinary to the King.
- * 677 Three Minutes of Rectoral Court at St Andrews, dated 16, 17 & 18 February 1720 signed by Rector, and a separate paper - a part of proceedings [April 1750]
- * 678. Ms Statement as to the Presbyterian Church in Halifax [perhaps made to General Assembly] c 1776.
- * 679. Modern Paper entitled "Remarks on the present state of affairs between Great Britain and America - no date.

* 680. A Paper containing a Plan for a Fund on behalf of the Widows of the Merchant Company in Edinburgh. no date -

* 681. Interesting letter Dr John Inglis to Dr Grieve Edinburgh, from "Old Slaughter's Coffee House, St Martin's Lane", 28 February 1807, as to the proceedings in London of the Commissioners from the General Assembly.

* 682. Packet of Autographs Sir James Hall of Dunfries, Lord Ellies "Earl of Stirling" William Beckford & seven letters by Dr Dibdin - Eleven papers in all.

* 683 <sup>4th</sup> Folio Ms. of 281 pages [dated in 1686, 1687] containing a number of letters in Latin, some addressed to a Bishop.

* 684 Ms [Watermark 1808] on the Art of Perspective with diagrams.

* 685. Packet containing notes by Professor Charles Mackie, extracts by him from the correspondence of Principal Carstares. Also in his handwriting a Memorial for the Professors in opposition to a Tax on ale, with Reply by Magistrates. 1742.

* 686. A Copy ~~Book~~ containing the "Round Hand with copies of the Black Saxon and Italian Hands" no date. Specimens of Calligraphy of last century.

* 687 Packet of eight papers, two relating to mines, the others giving lists of old Scottish Coins & information about money [dates uncertain]

See 478.